

BNY Mellon Wealth Management Wins Award for Excellence in Private Banking

HONG KONG, March 6, 2019 – BNY Mellon Wealth Management is proud to announce that the firm has won an award for excellence in servicing North American clients. The WealthBriefingAsia Greater China Award winners were announced at an awards gala last week at the Hong Kong Bankers Club, as part of a global program that recognizes excellence within the world of private banking.

"Winning this prestigious award is a testament to our individuals and teams, especially the successful collaboration between our Asian headquarters and our U.S. West Coast teams," said Yolande Escher, Head of Greater China at BNY Mellon Wealth Management. "This award is a tangible demonstration that we have something special to offer our clients."

The 2019 WealthBriefingAsia, Greater China Award finalists were evaluated on their performance from January 2018 through November 2018 by a select panel of judges.
